ENO HAD NO USE FOR COLLEGE BOYS, SAYS DR. WYLIE

Expressed Dislike of Columbia and Contempt for Its President, He Testifies.

Amos F. Eno, whose bequest of between $5,000,000 and $7,000,000 to Columbia University is being contested by the Pinchots and other heirs, did not believe in a college education and once declared all college bred young men were either "bums or loafers." Such was the gist of testimony given before Surrogate John P. Cohalan today by Dr. Robert N. Wylie, who was a personal friend and attendant of Mr. Eno during the last few years of the multi-millionaire's life.

"I talked to Mr. Eno about Columbia University three years ago," said Dr. Wylie. "He said he didn't like Columbia or Harvard and had contempt for Nicholas Murray Butler." Dr. Wylie said that at Saratoga Mr. Eno spoke harshly to Antonio Delphino, a South American friend, who was visiting him, saying once at a dinner party that Mr. Delphino ought not to eat too much or drink wine, adding that South Americans were "no good."

ROOSEVELT GETS CHEERS IN WASHINGTON COURT

Testifies Riggs Bank Head Is Man of Highest Integrity, Though a Political Opponent.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—"Absolutely the highest man in Washington from the standpoint of integrity and general knowledge," was Col. Roosevelt's characterization of C. C. Glover, on the witness stand here today in the Riggs Bank, is being tried on a charge of perjury.

The Colonel strode into the courtroom before either Judge or jury had arrived. When he greeted Glover, cheering began that was not silenced until Justice Siddons entered.

"Around 1912 I understood Mr. Glover," er to be either for Wilson or Taft. I knew he was against me," said Col. Roosevelt while testifying and the crowd laughed.

Roosevelt also gave a high character of W. J. Flather and Henry H. Flather, co-defendants.

Boy's Body Recovered from River.
The body of John Dandrea, nine years old, of No. 101 York Street, who was drowned when he fell from the pier at the foot of Washington Street, Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon, was recovered this morning by Patrolman Brasse of Harbor A. Patrolmen had been grappling for it all night. The little fellow had been playing with some companions when he stumbled at the string piece of the pier and fell in.

South Dakota for Cummins.
ST. PAUL, Minn., May 23.—Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa, was unopposed on the Republican Presidential ballot in the South Dakota primary today, but many voters declared their intentions of writing in the name of Col. Roosevelt. President Wilson was unopposed on the Democratic ticket.

HISTORY OF FAT REDUCTION

Here is a bit of history published for the benefit of the overweight. For many years there has been published in the daily press throughout the country a home-prepared recipe for overweightness—the new famous Marmola Prescription of an eminent physician. No doubt you have seen it, noticed it casually and decided that when you had the time you would try for yourself. The merits of this mixture. Many have successfully used this harmless remedy to their everlasting joy and benefit to health. The same great physician has condensed his famous Prescription into convenient tablet form, so that you have only to take after meals and at bed time a remarkably pleasant little tablet containing all the effective, pure, harmless ingredients of the original prescription. The pound-a-day reduction in your normal self comes without dieting, self-denial or exercise, and leaves no wrinkles or flabbiness. Marmola Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists or sent postpaid by the Marmola Co., 324 S. 7th St., St. Paul, Minn. The price is 75c for a large case—a generous supply.—Advt.
